Problem Description

If you click on the "Add new" link then a pop up window will appear for you to enter the new information.

Search bar

Almost every page will have a Search bar at the top. This can help quickly find or narrow your results; it'll be more useful once more data is entered.

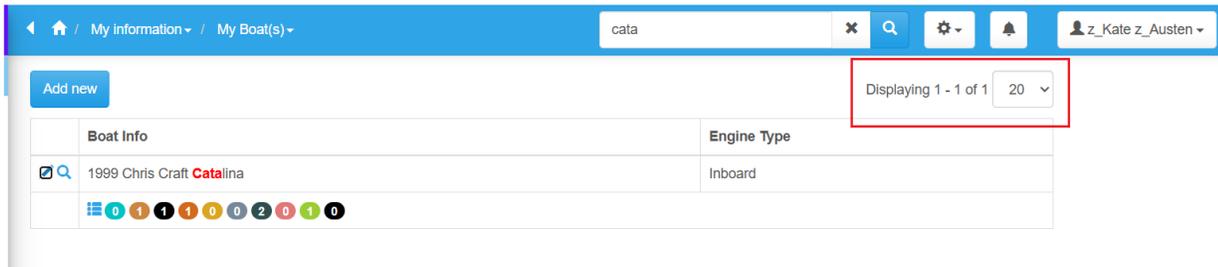

Once you click in the Search bar, just start typing whatever it is that you're looking for.

Example: I want to search for my 'Catalina' but I can't remember how to properly spell it. So I'll type "Cata" (without the quotes).

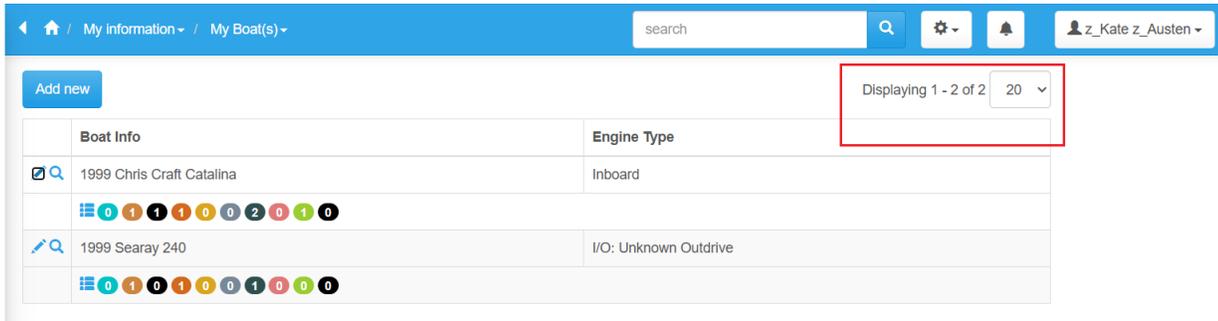

You'll notice how the results show any matches. I can just press "Enter" or click on one of the results.

Now there is only 1 result that matches.

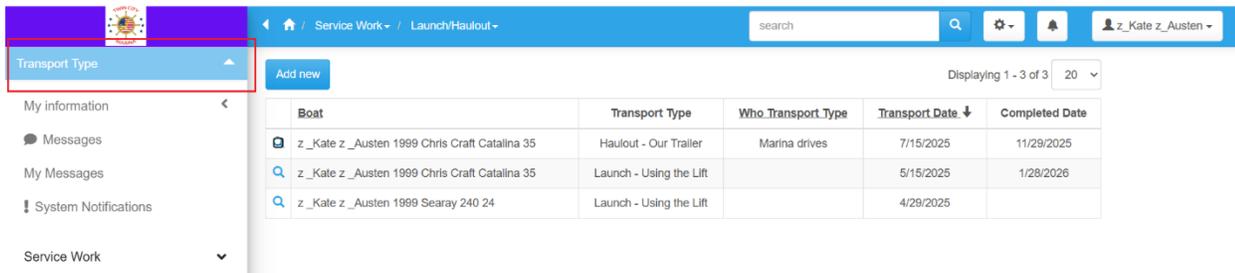

Click on the “X” in the Search bar to clear the search.

Filters

Some pages will have a list of Filters on the top left menu.

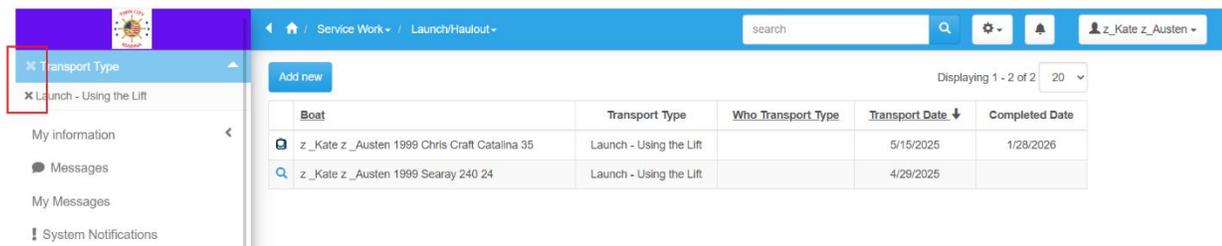

Click on the arrow to show the options. Currently, I have 3 results.

Click on one of the options to filter the results. Now I only have 2 of the 3 results showing.

To remove the Filter, click on the “X” to the left of the Filtered option or on the Filter.

Now the Filter is reset, and I have 3 results again.

The screenshot shows the 'Launch/Haulout' page with a table of results. A red box highlights the 'Displaying 1 - 3 of 3' and '20' dropdown menu.

System Notifications

In the upper right corner, there is a Bell icon that will show system notifications.

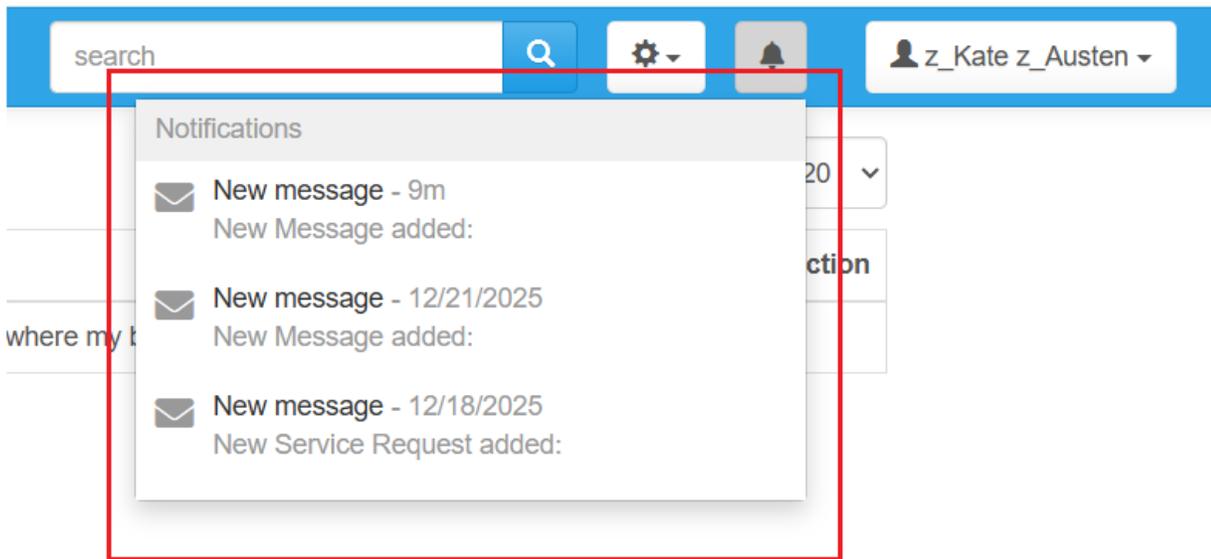

The screenshot shows the 'Messages' page with a table of results. A red box highlights the Bell icon in the top right corner.

If there are any notifications, it'll show a Red Circle on it.

The close-up screenshot shows the top navigation bar with the Bell icon highlighted by a red box. The Bell icon has a red circle with the number 1 next to it, indicating a notification.

Clicking on it will show the notifications. Once you click on the notifications, the number disappears but you can still see your list (unless there is an expiration date that is set).

If you click on a notification, then it'll bring you directly to it.

Errors

If you get an error that looks like a bunch of randomness; then it's one of 3 things.

1. I'm updating the website and the update brings the website down for a couple minutes.
2. There was a timeout but if you refresh (try again) then it should go away.
3. You actually broke it. Let me know what you did to cause that (so I can fix it).
